Defendant)

A federal search warrant, authorized by the Honorable Joseph C. Spero on May 9, 2013, was executed for the contents of, inter alia, the defendant's Facebook account. That search warrant contained the district's standard "Attachment C," which requires that the government seize only certain items enumerated in an "Attachment B."

Given that the entire contents of what Facebook provided for the defendant are the defendant's own statements on Facebook, the government hereby moves the Court for an Order permitting the government to provide the entirety of what Facebook provided to the government, to the defendant.
